

My after-school activities

Horse club

We are riding the horses. On the top of a hill we are having a break. The horses are loving the grass there.

We are making biscuits for the horses. They are made from apples, carrots and corn. The horses love eating them. We are secretly eating them too.

These are our hobby horses. We are making them by hand. Then we are running and jumping with them over obstacles.

